ANZAM 2025 Doctoral Workshop Information session – 26th March – 12pm-1pm AEDT via Zoom – OPEN to anyone to attend. REGISTER HERE - DW INFO SESSION 26/3/25

Join us for an information session on the ANZAM 2025 Doctoral Workshop (1st December 2025, hosted by Deakin University, Geelong Waterfront campus), themed "Dare to Discover: Empowering Impactful Research". This session will outline the stage-based approach of the workshop, designed to support PhD students at every stage of their journey, offering tailored sessions that align with key milestones—from formulating research questions to publishing findings and navigating employment prospects after completing a PhD. This session is also your chance to share your expectations and tell us what topics, activities, or support you find most valuable. Your feedback will help us tailor the workshop to meet the needs of doctoral students better. Don't miss out—be part of shaping this year's experience! Virangi Mendis - 2025 ANZAM Doctoral Rep.

Exploring the Role of Story and Narratives in Leadership Development

Leadership is not just about strategy, decision-making, or influence—it is also about meaning-making. Stories and narratives shape how leaders understand their roles, navigate challenges, and develop their leadership identities. In this interactive session, we will explore how storytelling serves as a powerful tool for leadership development, drawing on insights from research with Emergency Physicians exploring leadership in emergency medicine.

Andrew Rixon, PhD, is an internationally experienced leadership coach, action researcher and educator specialising in leadership and change through storytelling and narrative techniques.

8th May – 12pm-1pm AEST. REGISTER HERE - ANZAM PD SESSION 8/5/25

Podcasting to amplify research impact
